

States of Alderney

Press Release

Date: 21st May 2020

Beach ban for dogs and horses remains

Alderney's General Services Committee has ruled that the ban on dogs and horses on most of the island's beaches should remain in place despite the absence of tourists during lockdown.

Members considered the current rules prohibiting dogs on beaches between June 1 and September 15 but decided there should be no change in the short term.

Ends